Anthroposophy and Social Responsibility

Ley Social Principal / Main Social Law

"El bienestar de toda una comunidad de personas que en ella trabajan, será tanto mayor cuanto menos cada uno requiera para sí mismo el producto de su trabajo, es decir, cuanto más de este producto él ceda a sus semejantes, y cuanto más sus propias necesidades se satisfagan, no de su propio trabajo, sino del de los demás".

The welfare of an entire community of people who work in it will be all the greater, the less each one requires for himself the product of his work, that is, the more of this product he gives to his fellow men, and the more his own needs are satisfied, not from his own work, but from that of others.
